

Augustus C. Long Health Sciences Library Construction Notice

Currently the two lower levels of the Augustus C. Long Health Sciences Library are undergoing renovation. The historical print collection previously shelved in two levels of stacks has been moved to an offsite location. Vacated spaces will be transformed into a new education center. Modern classrooms and student spaces, as well as renovated library areas are scheduled to open no later than December 2009.