

THE ROOSTER

The Rooster emblem began with a bronze weather vane, affectionately known as “the Old-Timer,” dating from 1872, that once stood atop the spire of the original Presbyterian Hospital building on East 70th Street.

The Rooster now resides in the Executive Offices in the Milstein Hospital Building and has become the symbol for the Society of the Alumni

If you wish to have your name removed from lists to receive fundraising requests supporting NewYork-Presbyterian Hospital in the future, please either 1) write to us at: Director of Operations, Office of Development, NewYork-Presbyterian Hospital, 525 East 68th Street, Box 123, New York, NY 10065; 2) call us at 866-841-2420; or 3) email us at optoutnyp@nyp.org.
